V.

CRIMINAL NO. NO. 04 10288 RWZ 12

ARCHIBALD MacLEOD

MOTION TO AMEND THE CONDITIONS OF BAIL

The defendant moves to amend the conditions of bail heretofore imposed upon him.

As grounds for same the defendant says that since he was initially released he has been working steadily.

Of late he has received an offer to go on tugboats in the Greater Boston area.

The job opportunity, however, requires him to go out to sea between one and two weeks and thereafter spend one to two weeks at home.

However, while out at sea he will be going beyond the geographical confines of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

He will also be receiving random drug tests from his employer as part of his employment.

In conversation with the Assistant United States Attorney handling this case, Mr. David Tobin, Mr. Tobin has indicated that if Pretrial assents to this arrangement, he too would assent.

In conversation with the Pretrial Officer, Mr. David A. Picozzi, on December 2, 2005, Mr. Picozzi indicates that he too assents to Mr. McLeod having this amendment to his bail conditions if Mr. McLeod indicates to Mr. Picozzi when he is going out to sea and when he is anticipated to return and to call upon returning.
